PROJECT RECOMMENDATIONS	ACTION PLAN	EXPECTED COMPLETION DATE	PROGRAM RESPONSE
1. Review the five National Child Benefit Reinvestment areas to assess to what extent they are in line with provincial/territorial practices and priorities identified in the literature, and determine what mix of activity areas would be most effective for achieving desired results on-reserve.	The Headquarters NCBR team will conduct research and analysis and continue working with the Regions and HRSDC to compare on-reserve with off-reserve programming to determine the best mix of activity areas to meet overall objectives. The Headquarters NCBR team will organize a National NCBR conference with Regions and First Nations NCBR administrators to better define the scope of activity areas in order to achieve desired results. This will also be an opportunity to increase networking and showcase projects and best practices that are in line with the Initiative's objectives.	27/02/2009 30/11/2008	Status: Request to Close Update/Rationale: As of 31/03/2009: The 2007 Evaluation of the National Child Benefit Reinvestment Program recommendations have been superseded by the recommendations from the 2009 Impact Evaluation of the Income Assistance, Assisted Living, and National Child Benefit Reinvestment Programs. The program response for these new recommendations will be provided in the respective Action Plan Implementation Status Update. As of 30/09/2008: Complete. The program has consulted with regions and First Nations to scope activity areas. Conference not necessary. AES COMMENT: CLOSED
2. Strengthen the NCBR guidelines so that they provide sufficient guidance and help communities to focus on a plan to target only key activities that work toward reducing poverty and attaching people to the labour force.	The Headquarters NCBR team will continue to consult and work in collaboration with the Regions to review and update the First Nations NCBR National Manual so that it	01/04/2009	Status: Request to close Update/Rationale: As of 31/03/2009: The 2007 Evaluation of the National Child Benefit Reinvestment Program recommendations have been superseded by the recommendations from the 2009 Impact
